

Monument Rites Honor Pioneers

Special to The Tribune

MIDWAY, Wasatch County
—A monument has been dedicated here honoring pioneers buried in Midway between 1859 and 1869.

The dedication services were conducted by Hawthorne Camp, Daughters of the Utah Pioneers. Built by F. O. Heauter of Midway, the monument was fitted with a plaque provided by the DUP.

The dedicatory program included a song by Stella Luke, the unveiling by Nancy Heauter, dedicatory prayer by Nephi Probst, remarks by Lethe Tatge, captain of Wasatch County Central Camp, and address by Miss Marie Watts from the National DUP Camp, presentation by Shirley Chatwin, Hawthorne Camp captain; taps by Carl Selter, and a flag ceremony by Boy Scouts Mike Gale and Jim Baker.

Monument above, honoring pioneers buried at Midway from 1859 to 1869, has been dedicated by Hawthorne Camp, Daughters of the Utah Pioneers. Monument built by F. O. Heauter.

